

Meet the Study Leaders

Nichea VerVeer Guy / Climate Justice

Nichea is currently the Discipleship Pathway Director at Trinity UMC in Grand Rapids. She also serves UMW National as a member of the Racial Justice Support Team, helping to implement Charter for Racial Justice initiatives. She represents UMW National on the Board of Directors of Interfaith Center. Nichea is working on aligning UMW investments with Social Principles of the UMC and UMW justice policies. She is the General Conference 2016-2020 Head of Delegation for the West Michigan Conference. She is also the current chair of the Annual Conference Program Committee for the Michigan Area.

Rev. Mary McInnes / Covenant Community

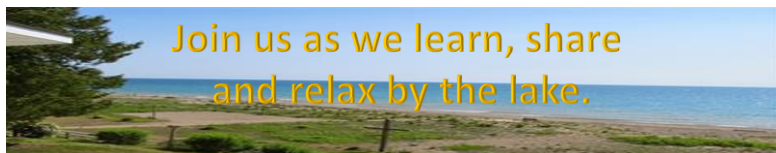

Rev. McInnes is currently the pastor of FUMC of MT. Clemens. She has been in ministry for twenty years and continues to be blessed with the opportunities to help people discover God's love for them, to see the gifts and graces that God has given them, and then help equip people to go out into the world to share the Good News of Jesus Christ and be in ministry with others. Rev. McInnes will be appointed to First UMC in South Lyon as their Lead Pastor as of July 01, 2017

Charissa Shawcross / Missionary Conferences

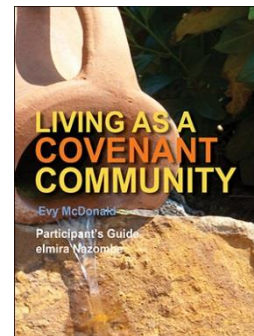

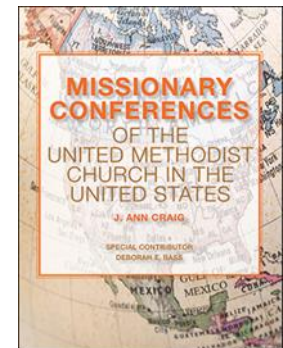

Charissa Shawcross, NP served as a missionary with the United Methodist Church through the General Board of Global Ministries from 2004-2016. She served in Detroit establishing health clinics to provide health care to the most vulnerable. She also served as the Mission Advocate for the North Central Jurisdiction. During her years as Mission Advocate, she had the opportunity to serve the people in Senegal, establishing health posts and training community health workers in remote villages. During her years of mission service, she had the opportunity to speak at Annual and District Conferences as well as many UMW events and Mission U across the jurisdiction. She completed service with Global Ministries in April, 2016 and works as an Advanced Practice Provider with Henry Ford Health System. She and her family have been members of Livonia Newburg since 1988.
